DEATH SUMMONS AN ESTIMABLE WOMAN

RALPH WARDLE CALLED TO OGDEN TO FUNERAL OF MOTHER

Ralph Wardle received a wire from Ogdien this morning telling of the death of his mother, Mrs. Rebecca Wardle. She was born in Yorkshire, England, in 1851 and came to the United States about 1865 and located in Ogdien, where she was married to Noah Wardle. She with her husband removed to Austin in 1871. They lived there until 1885, when they returned to Ogdien. Of late years she had lived in Salt Lake with her youngest son, but she died at Ogdien at the home of her eldest daughter.

There are twelve children living, Ralph Wardle, Tonopah; Mrs. Susan Guthrie, Ogdien; A. C. Wardle, Arizona; Mrs. Sarah Read, Salt Lake; Wm. B. Wardle, Idaho; Thomas R. Wardle, Idaho; Mrs. Stella Guthrie, Ogdien; Mrs. May Urie, Ogdien; Ezra Wardle, Slaterville, Utah; Stanley Wardle, Salt Lake; Mrs. Ester Jordan, Goldfield, and George Wardle of Fairview, Nevada, all living. Mr. Ralph Wardle left on train 23 to attend the funeral.

Mrs. J. J. Jordan, daughter of the deceased, returned from Ogdien on this morning's train, en route for her home in Goldfield, where she had been for the past month in attendance upon her mother, but who had improved in health and was not believed to be in danger. She was apprised of her mother's death as the train was leaving for Goldfield and was overcome by the sad news. She continued on to her home.

The many old time friends of Mrs. Noah Wardle who reside in Tonopah and who were her neighbors and acquaintances in Austin, learn with sadness of this estimable lady's demise.

CHARLES E. HUGHES

I beg to remind them that an American president is elected for a term of four years and under our institutions at the conclusion of that term the American people express their minds.

"When a matter is so important as the maintenance of American rights it is highly necessary that American opinion should be expressed; and I have no apology to make in standing before you and in saying that if I am elected president I propose that the American flag shall not be only a symbol of courtesy, a symbol of justice—but it shall be the symbol of firmness and consistency in maintaining our known rights on land and on sea throughout the world.

"That is not a policy that leads to war. There never has been a time perhaps in our history when it was easier to keep the American nation out of war than during the past few years when every nation engaged in the great strife abroad desired our friendship, and would not by reason of any assertion of our just rights, forfeit that friendship.

"I desire to see American enterprise advanced throughout the world. I want to see in the coming days of keen commercial rivalry representatives of American industry carrying their talents to the services of the world in foreign lands. It is idle, however, to expect success in that direction if we do not have full protection of those who represent our interests abroad.

"I am amazed to have any one suppose that we can prosper in the retention of American trade throughout the world if our flag is only an invitation to come home. Men who before election are desired as having the best genius in the world, and as doing a duty to humanity, should not be in danger after election of being called servants of their own private interests, who take their lives in their own hands for their personal ends.

"The dignity of American citizenship of one who is lawfully following his vocation anywhere—his rights are recognized by our laws and constitution as pertaining to American citizens throughout the world. These are not gifts for the administration to bestow or withhold in its discretion; rather these are trusts to be sacredly guarded."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for its Mexican policy. He declared that the question of recognizing Huerta was "beside the mark" and not an issue.

"And I refer to it only because of the very cruel and unwarrantable suggestions that an approval of my candidacy is an approval of war," he said, "as though our opponents had in some way acquired a monopoly of peace."

"I mean to emphasize that the policy of the administration has been, in my judgment, not a policy of peace, but rather a policy involving petty and unjustifiable warfare, and I propose that we have a policy which shall have as its cornerstone, first, that we shall not have a muddle of middle as Disraeli once said, but that we shall have protection of American lives and property, and the prosecution of a consistent policy which cannot fail to evoke respect while it safeguards the rights of American citizens."

"We hear a great deal of talk, not only with respect to peace, but respect to prosperity. The interesting thing about it is that these suggestions, which are intended to have political effect, when examined and considered and analyzed, lead to just the opposite conclusions which those putting forward the suggestion intend to present to the public mind."

Mr. Hughes assailed the administration for the Underwood tariff, declaring that after the war American enterprise would have to be protected.

CHIHUAHUA CITY IS REPORTED CAPTURED

(By Associated Press.)

EL PASO, Nov. 3.—American mining men who have interests in Parral reported from Chihuahua City to have been taken by Villa troops on Tuesday, are much concerned over the fate of the nine Americans known to be in Parral. This concern was increased by the news from Chihuahua City that the bandits who held up the Mexican Central passenger train Monday evening at Laguna station assaulted Dr. Steven Haffner, a German subject, because they thought he was an American. This they say is an indication of what may happen to the nine Americans in the Parral mining district.

Mining men and ore freighters here who are thoroughly familiar with the country in the vicinity of Parral say that Villa probably moved on Parral from Santa Rosalia, following the Conchos river to Pielar de Concha, a distance of 45 miles from Santa Rosalia, and then marched south 45 miles against Parral, entering the town from the north, which is the most accessible way, they say.

These mining men declare that the report of Villa's capture of the town verifies the report that Villa and his command had been in possession of Santa Rosalia, as it was announced that he would move on Parral from Santa Rosalia.

Villa is said to have a grudge against General Luis Herrera, the Carranza commander in Parral, and to have declared that when he captured Parral he intended to kill Herrera with his own hands.

The report of Villa's capture of Parral was received here by government agents last night and forwarded to Washington.

RUMANIAN CAMPAIGN OF GREAT INTEREST

GERMAN OFFENSIVE IN GALICIA IS GROWING LESS SERIOUS

(By Associated Press.)

PETROGRAD, Nov. 3.—Interest in the Rumanian situation continues to overshadow minor episodes on the Russian western front, particularly since the approach of winter already has precluded the possibility of further operations on a large scale in this theater.

There has been, however, a noticeably growing tendency on the part of the Germans to begin a more or less serious offensive at various points in Galicia, the most important of which is the one undertaken south of Brestany, where the Russian positions along the Narayuka river have offered exceptional advantages for a flanking attack upon Halicz from the north and at the same time constituting a direct menace to Lemberg.

The Germans aimed this attack along the line from Brestany to Halicz, but concentrating most heavily in the region of Mitchau wood, began a determined attack on the night of October 29, which carried the Russian positions.

Russian critics, although manifestly surprised at the German ability to launch an offensive of large forces at this point, do not consider the hostile advance over a six mile front of more than local importance and state that its only significance is in relation to the Transylvania operation, being an obvious attempt to create a diversion and prevent further Russian co-operation on the Transylvania front, where General von Falkenhayn, after being temporarily checked, is making a new effort to advance.

RECEPTION TENDERED MISS ANNE MARTIN

PARTY MOTIF OF A TEA AT MIZPAH

Miss Anne Martin, national chairman of the National Woman's party, arrived from Goldfield this afternoon and was greeted by a number of Tonopah's women voters, who had tea prepared in the lobby of the Mizpah hotel, which had been gallantly decorated with the tri-colored banners of the party.

Miss Martin is a Nevada woman and by her almost unaided efforts built up an organization in this state to forward the equal suffrage movement which has now become national. She spent years abroad and at Washington in the interest of this cause and has been made the head of the new party, which in the twelve suffrage states will cast four million votes next Tuesday.

Miss Martin said to the Bonanza at the tea this afternoon: "I have been over the entire state and have met with great encouragement. Women everywhere are putting the securing of the adoption of the Susan B. Anthony amendment above partisan politics and are rallying to the cause."

"Our campaign is only being carried on in the twelve suffrage states and is for the emancipation of our sisters in non-suffrage states. We intend to show our strength by opposition to President Wilson and his administration, which has for the past four years persistently thrown stumbling blocks in the way of the adoption of the amendment which will give the women votes in all the states. If we show results, as over four years ago, in the twelve suffrage states, we will feel that we have made good."

AMUSEMENTS

BUTLER THEATER

The feature at the Butler this evening is Virginia Pearson in "Dare Devil Kate," the soul-stirring story of a woman's redemption, in which Cleopatra, Carmen and Cigarette are all represented in the "Dare Devil," really a girl bandit. "Dare Devil Kate" is a character unique in literature and motion pictures," said Virginia Pearson. "Kate begins by being a bad woman; then she becomes good; then she relapses into wickedness with redoubled energy; and when again she becomes good, she does so to stay. Kate represents to my mind," said Miss Pearson, "a combination of Carmen, Cleopatra, the Girl of the Golden West, and Cigarette. She has a good side which is not displayed in any of those, not even in Ouida's famous Cigarette. She is a woman of energy and courage, absolutely fearless; she is a woman of kindness and virtue, without a spark of real evil in her heart. The preliminary reel will be a refined one-reel comedy—a new brand. Tomorrow, Lionel Barrymore in "The Quilter," Napoleon and Sally, the educated clumps, and "Sonny Boy's School Days," a juvenile comedy. Monday, a new vaudeville act.
